Jonathan & Faith Goldberg, OM, Israel

- As believers, we hold on to the many promises and assurances we have in God's Word. Promises that He is loving, powerful, in control and that He is working out His global, eternal plan (for Israel and the nations) and through it all, He will be glorified. Still, like everyone around us, we are making daily decisions based upon risk assessment. The result is that deep-down, we know that "risks" of all types are stressful. So, we press-on in cautious, stressful routine, leaning on Him, boldly taking EVERY opportunity to make Yeshua known, encouraging, helping and strengthening others around us to the best of our ability, while not neglecting our own family.

- Please pray that the right door will open for our son Stephen to continue his medical training.
